DETAILED ACTION

Restriction/Election

Specie Election Requirements:

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

First specie election requirement:

Specie A: NMR experiments that are 3D experiments (i.e. claims 4-5 and 25-26)

Specie B: NMR experiments that are 2D experiments (i.e. claims 7-8 and 28-29)

Specie C: NMR experiments that are a combination of 2D and 3D experiments (i.e. claims 9 and 30)

Subspecie A-1 or C-1 requirement:

If specie A or C are selected, please select one of the following subspecies:

Species A and C recite patentably distinct species, namely 3D type experiments. If species A or C is elected, then please select one of type experiments as listed in claims 5 and 26, so that initial examination of this application may proceed.

Second specie election requirement:

These claims recite patentably distinct species, namely NMR experiments for the analysis of side chain signals. Please select one of type experiments as listed in claims 6 and 27, so that initial examination of this application may proceed.

Art Unit: 1631

Third specie election requirement:

Specie D: cross-signal pattern search masks that are predefined signal search regions

Specie E: cross-signal pattern search masks that are a number of predefined empty regions

Specie F: cross-signal pattern search masks that are threshold values and search regions

Specie G: cross-signal pattern search masks that are a plurality of sub-search masks

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed specie for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The distinctness or independence of the various NMR experiments (first and second specie election requirements and subspecies) is because each is directed to different method steps. The distinctness of the cross-signal pattern search mask (third specie election) is because each mask type is directed to distinct features that differ from the other mask scenarios. All of these experiments and masks are distinct as requiring distinct and different functions and features thereof without overlapping search due to different subject matter. This lack of overlapping searches documents the undue search burden if they were searched together.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the specie that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Art Unit: 1631

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should an applicant traverse the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
